PUBLISHERS' NOTE

This Index Volume contains two sections:

(a) An alphabetical list of all cases printed in the All England Law Reports Reprint covering the years 1558 to 1935.
(b) A comprehensive subject index covering those cases (pp. 181 et seq.).

To find a particular case, where the name of any of the parties is known, reference should be made to the alphabetical list where the volume and page at which the case is printed will be found.

To find cases on a particular topic, reference should be made to the index section under the legal subject involved. A glance at the entries under that heading should quickly show cases dealing with the requisite points.

To help in keeping this index within reasonable bounds use has been made of a simple cross reference system. Where a particular topic might be placed under one of several headings the more general heading has been adopted and pointers to that main heading inserted in the other places. In addition, where it is felt that under another heading there are cases which may be supplementary to those noted under the main heading, " see also " cross references have been given.

This permanent index volume replaces the temporary volume for 1843–1935, published in February, 1966, which may now be destroyed.
